2015 REVEREND DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. SYMPOSIUM

25th ANNUAL HEALTH SCIENCES PROGRAM

MONDAY 12:00 - 1:30 PM
JANUARY 19

“There can be unity where there is not uniformity.”
- MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.
Marie A. Chisholm-Burns, PharmD, MPH, MBA, FCCP, FASHP, is Dean and Professor of the University of Tennessee Health Science Center College of Pharmacy and Professor of Surgery in the College of Medicine. She previously served as Professor and Head of the Department of Pharmacy Practice and Science at the University of Arizona College of Pharmacy, with joint appointments as Professor in the Department of Surgery and the Division of Health Promotion Sciences.

Dr. Chisholm-Burns is Founder and Director of the Medication Access Program which increases medication access to transplant recipients. She has also served in numerous elected leadership positions in several different professional organizations, has worked in multiple pharmacy settings, and is a member of the National Academies of Practice. She serves as a member of government organizations, such as the Food and Drug Administration. With more than 275 publications and approximately $10 million in external funding as principal investigator from organizations such as the National Institutes of Health and several foundations, Dr. Chisholm-Burns is a prolific scholar. Her areas of research focus include transplant medicine, health services, scholarship of teaching, and health care access, equity, and disparities.

Dr. Chisholm-Burns has received numerous awards and honors including the Robert K. Chalmers Distinguished Pharmacy Educator Award from the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, the Clinical Pharmacy Education Award from the American College of Clinical Pharmacy, the Daniel B. Smith Practice Excellence Award from the American Pharmacists Association (APhA), the Rufus A. Lyman Award for most outstanding publication in the American Journal of Pharmaceutical Education (1996 and 2007), the Nicholas Andrew Cummings Award from the National Academies of Practice, the Award of Excellence from the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists (ASHP), the Pharmacy Practice Research Award (2011 and 2014) and Award for Sustained Contributions to the Literature from the ASHP Foundation, and the Research Achievement Award from APhA. Dr. Chisholm-Burns is also a Fulbright Scholar.
