Dr. Utibe R. Essien, MD, MPH

Imagine a world where everyone, no matter their race, ethnicity, income or resources, has access to the life-saving medications they need to thrive. That world isn't just a dream – but is possible through pharmacoequity. Join Dr. Essien for an inspiring session where he'll break down how you can champion pharmacoequity in your own practice and help build a more just and equitable healthcare system for all.
