

Pharmacy at the Farmers Market

Free screenings, health education, and seasonal wellness support

16 S. Washington St.

9:00am - 1:00pm

Stay Protected: Vaccine Education

Students will share helpful information on how vaccines can protect individuals, loved ones, and the community during flu and COVID season. Information will also be available on which vaccines may be recommended based on age and health needs.

Stay Protected: Flu and COVID Vaccination Clinic (ages 3+)

- No appointment necessary
- Please bring your insurance card, if you have one

A Sweet Step Toward Better Health

Join us for free blood sugar and A1c screenings, along with helpful information on understanding the results and managing blood sugar levels.